FAQ

All PC Counter-Strike games, except de_inferno, are available on the Command Center! The game will be released once we've seen 10,000 people register! Deadline for registration is 28/10/2013. From those registering, 10% of the sum will go to the Childsafe fund. 3 All post in this topic are subject to the rules of the forum. When registering, you agree to our forum rules. To go into a private server, you must register your name, email and password. You must confirm that you are a registered user by pressing the verify button on your account's page. All server names and passwords are secret and nobody can share them. All services mentioned in this topic are online only. 4 Caution: there will be very few people on the server. It is only for testing purpose, it is not playable (only cheat, ignore this topic) and should not be used for anything else. There will be two servers: Europe and North America. Players will get server according to their geographical location. We will make a group for people from the same country, so you will know your fellow player. 5 All players will be ranked and in one of the servers. Your rank is the only thing that defines you. 6 All players on the server have to be online at the same time to play the game. There is no mute system, so it will be more difficult to cheat. If a player is online and joins the server, then he can play. 7 Players who have played more than 10 matches will have priority over new players. No player will be able to cheat by copying his best player or replay his other matches. We will decide on each of the servers who will be the new players. 8 All players have to finish matches. If your match is not finished by the deadline, you will get -0 points for that round. The game is more interesting when players cooperate with each other. There is no ban. You will never get banned by a cheat. 9 Be sure that you are playing with other players you want to play with. It is much more difficult for cheaters to open your match with your best friend and then block you out of the match. 10 We will have a 82157476af
